

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE AND BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Chair of the Avangrid Networks Board of Directors

Type: Non-executive, non-independent

Other current professional activities and positions

Ana Lafuente González also serves as Networks Global Director of the Iberdrola Group. She is also a member of the Boards of Directors of I-DE Redes Eléctricas Inteligentes, S.A.U. and ScottishPower Energy Networks Holdings Ltd.

Personal profile and academic training

Ms. Lafuente earned a degree in Electrical Engineering from the ICAI School of Engineering of the Comillas Pontifical University, PDD IESE Navarra University, postgraduate course in Economics of the Electricity Sector from the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid.

Noteworthy experience in the energy and industrial engineering sector

Ms. Lafuente has more than 25 years of experience in the energy networks sector. She began her career in consultancy and has held various management positions since joining Iberdrola in 1995. She has enjoyed responsibilities that have led to significant functional and geographical mobility both nationally and internationally, which has allowed her to experience first-hand the technological evolution of the electricity distribution system.

Ms. Lafuente has developed experience throughout the various positions she has held in Iberdrola over many years and has served in as:

- Enero 2024 – Present Global Networks Director
- August 2019 – December 2023: Networks East Region Director (Spain)
- August 2016 – July 2019: AVANGRID Networks: Vice President of Processes & Technology (USA)
- 2006 - 2016: NORTHERN REGION: Head of Networks Planning and Operations Department
- 2002 - 2005: REGION CENTRO: Head of Extremadura Networks Zone and Institutional Delegate
- 1999 - 2001: IBERDROLA COMERCIAL: International Customer Team Leader
- 1997 - 1999: ELECTROPAZ: Management Control and Strategic Planning (Bolivia)
- 1995 - 1996: DISTRIBUCION REGION NORTE: Commercial Management in the Gipuzkoa Zone

