

Partner, Baker McKenzie

Antonio Morales serves the Secretary of Avangrid's Compensation and Nominating Committee and Governance and Sustainability Committee. Mr. Morales as a Juris Doctorate from Autonomous University of Barcelona and a Law Degree from Complutense University of Madrid.

NOTEWORTHY EXPERIENCE:

Mr. Morales heads the Public Law, Infrastructure and Energy department at Baker McKenzie in Madrid since March 2019. Mr. Morales is a State Attorney, on leave of absence, a recognized market leader in energy and natural resources and he has deep industry knowledge, creating trusted counsel relationships with global EMI players, having advised clients in the sector over the last 15 years. He is not only an expert in energy and infrastructure matters, but also one of the most recognized lawyers in the field of arbitration. During his time in the Spanish Administration, he served, among other senior positions, as the Secretary General of the Nuclear Safety Council.