

Director of Iberdrola España Distribution

Eva M<sup>a</sup> Mancera Flores is the Director of Iberdrola España Distribution reporting to the Board of Directors of I-De Redes Eléctricas Inteligentes. Eva earned her Electrical Engineering degree through Universidad de Salamanca. She participated in the 4th edition of the Energising Leadership Programme provided by ESADE Business School.

NOTEWORTHY EXPERIENCE

In her role as Director of Iberdrola España Distribution, Eva manages the distribution business in Spain with the aim of maximizing the results, manages the network and the regulated processes, maximizing the profitability of the assets and maintaining the highest standards of service quality, environment and safety.

Eva joined Iberdrola in 1996, since then, developing her professional career in the hydraulic power generation business. She has held different positions such as the Cedillo Hydro Plant Manager, Planning and Maintenance Manager for the power generation in the Mediterranean area, Management and Operation of power generation in Sil area, and Planning and Maintenance Manager for the power generation in Tajo area. Between 2006 and 2011, she served as hydraulic power generation Service Manager and then served as Senior Manager for the power generation of the Tajo area. In 2017, she assumed the position of West Region Direction.