

Independent Non-Executive Member of the Board of Directors of Avangrid, Inc.

Independent Non-Executive Member of the Board of Directors of AVANGRID, Inc., he earned two degrees from Monroe Community College, a Bachelor of Science degree from Rochester Institute of Technology, and Master of Arts degree from the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University.

NOTEWORTHY EXPERIENCE:*Other industries

Mr. Duffy serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Greater Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

OTHER INFORMATION:

Previously, he served as New York lieutenant governor in Governor Andrew Cuomo's administration from January 2011 to December 2014. Prior serving as lieutenant governor, he served as Rochester mayor from January 2006 to January 2011 and as Rochester police chief from March 1998 to April 2005, when he resigned his post to run for mayor. Mr. Duffy joined the Rochester Police Department in November 1976.

Mr. Duffy also serves on the Board of Trustees of the State University of New York and the Boards of Directors of Business Council of New York State and the Center for Governmental Research. In May of 2012, the National Ethnic Coalition of Organizations awarded Mr. Duffy the Ellis Island Medal of Honor. The medal honors notable American citizens who demonstrate a life committed to community service.