ARTICLE 15. BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

1. A director may not take advantage of a business opportunity of the Corporation, either for the director's own benefit or for the benefit of connected persons, unless the investment or transaction has previously been offered to the Iberdrola Group, the Iberdrola Group has chosen not to take advantage of it without any pressure from the director, and the director has been authorized by the Board of Directors to profit from the transaction.
2. For purposes of the preceding section, a business opportunity shall be deemed to be any possibility of making an investment or a business transaction that has arisen or has been discovered in connection with the director's performance of duties as such, or through the use of means and information belonging to the Corporation, or in circumstances such that it is reasonable to believe that the third party's offer was in fact addressed to the Corporation.
3. Likewise, a director shall not use the Corporation's name and shall not invoke the position thereof as director of the Corporation in order to carry out transactions for the director's own account or for the account of connected persons.

ARTICLE 16. RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

1. "Related-Party Transactions" shall be those transactions involving a transfer of resources, services or obligations between the Corporation or its controlled companies with their directors, with officers or with their respective Related Parties, as well as transactions carried out by the Corporation with other companies of the Iberdrola Group subject to a conflict of interest.
2. For purposes of these Guidelines, the following shall be deemed to be "Related Parties" of the directors and officers:
 - The spouse of a director and of an officer or persons connected thereto by a like relationship of affection.
 - The ascendants, descendants and siblings of the director and of the officer or the spouse thereof.
 - The spouses of the ascendants, descendants and siblings of the director and of the officer.
 - Companies or entities in which the director and the officers directly or indirectly holds, including through an intermediary, an interest that gives them significant influence, or companies or entities, or the controlling company thereof, in which they hold a position on the management body or within the senior management thereof. For these purposes, it is assumed that any interest equal to or greater than 10% of the share capital or voting rights or based on which it has been possible to obtain representation on the company's management body, in fact or by law, provides a significant influence.
 - The shareholders represented by the director on the Board of Directors.

3. By way of exception Related-Party Transaction shall not include: (i) transactions entered into by the Corporation with its sole shareholder or with its wholly-owned controlled companies; (ii) transactions carried out by the Corporation with its controlled companies or investees unless any of its directors or officers or their respective Related Parties is in turn a significant shareholder in the controlled company or investee; (iii) transactions carried out on standard terms for customers and that are not significant, understood as those whose reporting is not necessary to give a true and fair view of the assets and liabilities, financial position and results of the Corporation; and (iv) the approval by the Board of the terms and conditions of the contract to be entered into between the Corporation and any director who is to perform executive duties, including the chief executive officer and other officers, and the determination by the Board of the specific amounts or remuneration to be paid under such contracts.
4. Approval. Related-Party Transactions must be approved by the sole shareholder, in the exercise of the powers of shareholders acting at a General Shareholders' Meeting, in the instances provided by law and, particularly, if they relate to a transaction having a value of more than ten per cent of the corporate assets. In other situations in which the law does not require the approval of the sole shareholder, in the exercise of the powers of shareholders acting at a General Shareholders' Meeting, Related-Party Transactions shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. A prior report of the Audit and Compliance Committee shall be required in both cases.
5. The Board of Directors, through the Audit and Compliance Committee, shall endeavour to ensure that Related-Party Transactions are fair and reasonable from the viewpoint of the Corporation.
6. Without prejudice to the provisions of this section, the Board of Directors may delegate the approval of Related-Party Transactions entered into by the Corporation when so allowed by law, and particularly those of the Corporation with other companies controlled thereby belonging to the Iberdrola Group and subject to a conflict of interest, provided that they are transactions entered into in the ordinary course of business, which shall include those resulting from the execution of a master agreement or contract and concluded on arm's-length terms. The approval of the delegated Related-Party Transactions shall not require a prior report from the Audit and Compliance Committee, but the Board of Directors must establish a regular internal reporting and control procedure in relation thereto, in which the Audit and Compliance Committee must participate, which Committee shall verify the fairness and transparency of such transactions and compliance with any criteria for allowing the delegation.
7. The execution of a Related-Party Transaction puts the director engaging in said transaction or who is connected to the person engaging in the transaction in a conflict of interest, for which reason, to the extent applicable and subject to the provisions of law, the provisions of article 11 above shall apply.
8. The directors must give written notice to the secretary of the Board of Directors, on an annual basis, within the first quarter of each year, regarding the Related-Party Transactions in which they or persons connected to the Corporation relating thereto have engaged during the immediately preceding period. The members of senior management must do so through the director of Compliance, who must forward the information received to the secretary of the Board of Directors.
9. Without prejudice to the foregoing, directors must immediately inform the Board of Directors in writing of any Related-Party Transaction relating to them or to their Related Parties that must be approved by the Board of Directors or by the sole shareholder pursuant to the provisions of article 11 or the provisions of law.
10. The notice of Related-Party Transactions must include the following information: (i) object and nature of the transaction; (ii) date on which it originated; (iii) main terms and conditions, including the value or the amount of the consideration and the terms and conditions of and periods for payment; (iv) identity of the persons who participated in the transaction and the relationship, if any,

with the director; and (v) other aspects, such as pricing policies, guarantees, and any other feature of the transaction that allows for a proper assessment thereof, particularly including such information as allows for verification that it is fair and reasonable from the viewpoint of the Corporation.

11. The secretary of the Board of Directors shall prepare a register of Related-Party Transactions, except with respect to the Related-Party Transactions of the officers, which shall be prepared by the director of Compliance.
12. The Board of Directors, through its secretary, shall report to the sole shareholder regarding Related-Party Transactions on an annual basis.

ARTICLE 17. DUTY TO DISCLOSE INFORMATION

1. A director must notify the Corporation, through the secretary of the Board of Directors, of any holdings in the capital of any company with an activity that is the same, similar or complementary to the activity constituting the corporate object, and the positions or duties performed therein, as well as the performance on the director's own behalf or on behalf of others of any type of activity that is complementary to the activity constituting the corporate object of the Corporation. This disclosure shall be included in the notes to the annual financial statements as required by law.
2. A director must also disclose to the Corporation:

In particular, the director must inform the Board of Directors before accepting office as director or member of management at another company or entity (except for the positions the director is called upon to hold at companies belonging to the Iberdrola Group or at other companies in which the director represents the interests of the Iberdrola Group).

In particular, every director must inform the Corporation, through its chair, in the event that the director is subject to an investigation or if an order for further prosecution or an order for commencement of an oral criminal trial is issued against the director for the commission of any of the crimes. In such instance, the Board of Directors shall review this circumstance as soon as practicable and shall adopt the measures it deems fit taking into account the interests of the Corporation, such as opening an internal investigation, requesting the resignation of the director or proposing the removal thereof.
 - d) In general, any fact or event that may be relevant to the holding of office as a director of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 18. POWERS OF INFORMATION AND INSPECTION

1. A director shall have the power to obtain information regarding any aspect of the Corporation, to examine its books, records, documents and other background information on corporate transactions, to inspect all of its facilities and to communicate with the officers of the Corporation, without prejudice to the limitations arising from any applicable legal provisions.

2. The exercise of the aforementioned powers shall first be channelled through the secretary of the Board of Directors, who shall act on behalf of the chair thereof.
